Hana's family moved to a new apartment in Giza. It's much bigger than their old apartment. The new apartment is near the Pyramids. There are three big bedrooms. Hana shares a room with her younger sister, Marwa. All the family like the new apartment.

The furniture in Ancient Egyptian homes was different from today. There were reed mats to sit and sleep on. They used papyrus to cover the windows and doors. This kept the insects outside. In every home, there were large pots and baskets for storing crops and wooden boxes for clothes. Not many people had beds or chairs. In cities, people lived very close together, and so they built their houses. taller, with two floors.
